Unicoloured

The legs have the same color as the rest of the furniture, giving your home a cohesive and uniform look.

Rounded edges

The front edges have a rounded shape that corresponds with the round metal legs.

No handles

The doors have no handles disturbing the overall clean look. Instead, you can easily open the door at the top, where you'll find an elegant cutout that also gives the furniture its character.

PARMA

UNICOLOURED AND CONTEMPORARY WITH A TOUCH OF ELEGANCE

Parma is a monochromatic, contemporary collection designed for modern living. This versatile collection offers plenty of storage while adding both elegance and softness to your home. The legs gracefully match the colour of the rest of the furniture, creating a clean and cohesive look that's pleasing to the eye. A seamless, unicoloured finish brings a sense of unity to your home.

The round edges and curved legs give a sense of softness while the doors without handles give you elegant furniture that will easily find its place in all interiors. Olivier Toulouse has designed the original cutout handle on the top plate with usability and simplicity in mind.
